Safety Points For Hunters

Richmond, Va. -- Inexperienced woodsmen aren't the only dangers facing hunters when deer season opens November 19.

Early morning driving and frightened animals can create problems too, according to John T. Hanna, director, Highway Safety Division of Virginia.

"Most hunters leave home early in the morning to get a head start," Hanna said. "This allows more hunting time, but sometimes puts motorists behind the wheel before they are fully awake and alert."

To combat early morning grogginess, Hanna suggests a good night's sleep. Hunters who leave before dawn should be aware that driving with headlights on is required by law from half hour after sunset to half hour before sunrise. Headlights not only increase the driver's visibility but make his car more visible to other motorists.

Frigntened animals pose another problem for hunters. "Wild animals' actions are unpredictable. An animal disturbed by a hunting party is more likely to leave the protection of the woods. Alert drivers must watch for confused animals on the highways as well as other motorists."

Primary P-TA Open House Set

Parents Needed!

Make your next child one of ours.

We need parents with lots of love to share, to care for extra special children. Often a child is forced to leave his natural parents until they are financially or physically able to care for him again.

All too frequently, the child is placed in an orphanage, away from the joys a family can bring and the needs a family can fulfill.

Please, we need your help to help our children. Contact the Appomattox County Department of Social Services, telephone 352-7125.

Riding Tournament in Virginia

In 1821 a tournament was held at Mt. Solon, Virginia to decide which of two young men should have a certain damsel for his wife. This event has been run continuously each August ever since!

Elsewhere in the nation the sport continues under different names and varying field rules. But whether it be in Oregon, Colorado, Louisiana, West Virginia, Maryland (where it became the official state sport in 1962), or Virginia the basics are essentially the same.

At the command "Charge, Sir Knight" the rider, lance in hand, will gallop his horse in a straight line down the eighty yard course and attempt to spear each of the three rings suspended from poles spaced equidistant along the way. Sizes of the rings used begin with one and one-half inch in diameter and descend to one quarter inch as the competition mounts. The rider's lance is seven feet long and may be home-made, custom crafted or handed down from father to son. His tunic or sash is emblematic of the knights of old who carried into the joust a scarf or handkerchief of his "lady faire."

Today, in Virginia as elsewhere, "tournament riding" is enjoying a rise in popularity with young and old, male and female, alike.

If sufficient support is shown in this area we are planning to hold a tournament here in Appomattox. Any seeking further information, contact P. D. O'Brien.

PURITAN PULPIT

GOD IS SOVEREIGN

What is meant by such a statement? By the Sovereignty of God is meant His power and right of dominion over His creatures, to dispose and determine them as seems good to Him. Daniel said, "He doeth according to His will in the army of heaven, and the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay His hand" 4:35. Isaiah quotes God as saying, "My counsel shall stand, and I will do all My pleasure." 46:10. God is utterly supreme and there is no other who is. He is dependant on and subject to NO one for He is sovereign. "Divine sovereignty means that God is God in fact, as well as in name, that He is on the throne of the universe, directing all things, working all things "after the counsel of His own will." (Eph. 1:11)

It is a fact that God reigns over all and this should be a source of strength and comfort to the child of God. "There is no attribute more comforting to his children than that of God's Sovereignty. Under the most adverse circumstances, in the most severe trials, they believe that Sovereignty has ordained their afflictions, that Sovereignty overrules them, and that Sovereignty will sanctify them all. There is nothing for which the children ought more earnestly to contend than the doctrine of their Master over all creation--the Kingship of God over all the works of His own hands--the Throne of God and His right to sit upon that Throne. On the other hand, there is no doctrine more hated by worldings, no truth of which they have made such a football, as the great stupendous, but yet most certain doctrine of the Sovereignty of the infinite Jehovah. Men will allow God to be everywhere except on His Throne. They will allow Him to be in His almonry to dispense His alms and bestow His bounties. They will allow Him to sustain the earth and bear up the pillars thereof, or light the lamps of heaven, or rule the waves of the ever-moving ocean; but when God ascends His Throne, His creatures then gnash their teeth, and we proclaim an enthroned God, and His right to do as He will with His own, to dispose of His creatures as He thinks well, without consulting them in the matter; then it is that we are hissed and execrated, and then it is that men turn a deaf ear to us, for God on His throne is not the God they love. But it is God upon the throne that we love to preach. It is God upon His throne whom we trust."

God being eternal then His sovereign rule is eternal. So you better seek to be made at peace with the God who eternally rules. "Woe unto him that striveth with his Maker. Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth. Shall the thing say to Him that fashioned it, What makest Thou? Isa. 45:9. It is only through the Lord Jesus Christ that you can have peace with God foe He is the only mediator between God and man.
